

ETHIKLI

THE FIRST PACKAGE-FREE GROCERY STORE IN LONG BEACH

352 E 4th St, Long Beach, CA 90802

the vision

A grocery store designed for sustainability and ethical standards. Ethikli promises that each purchase reroutes money away from fast fashion, sweatshops, and child labor.

Katy Impellizzeri, 31, is the founder of Ethikli. Ethikli was born out of Impellizzeri's frustration at the lack of eco-friendly options and low ethical standards for everyday products that many consumers are not aware of.

what is sold?

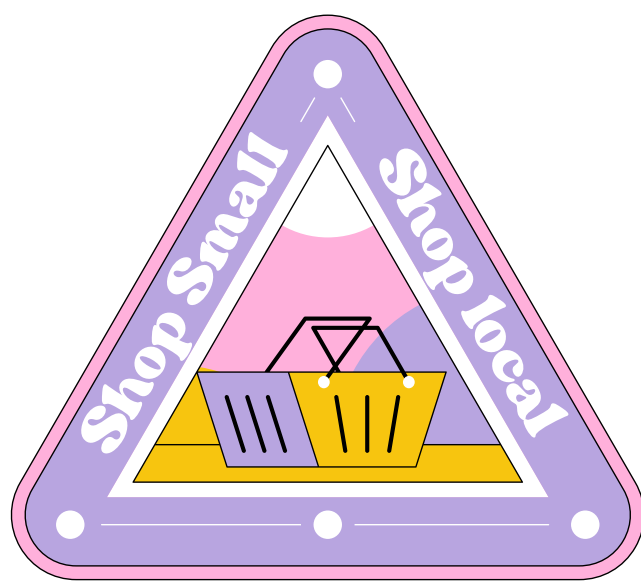

Beans and legumes, dried fruit, granola, spices, nuts and seeds, bread, coffee, tea, pasta, oils, and baking flour.

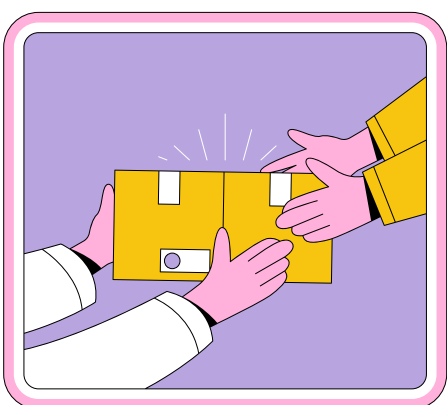

Ethikli sells a variety of essentials including bath and body products, cleaning and laundry supplies, clothing, pet products, gifts, as well as reusable grocery and produce bags.

Ethikli provides all their goods in bulk, and all the groceries are sourced locally.

EVERYTHING IS ORGANIC AND VEGAN. ETHIKLI OFFERS A VARIETY OF GLUTEN-FREE OPTIONS AS WELL.

Eco-friendly approach

Eco-friendly approach, Ethikli orders their boxes through EcoEnclose, a company that specializes in sustainable packaging and uses algae ink to make boxes 100% recyclable. The company's shipments are done via Sendle, a company that ensures carbon-neutral domestic shipping.

The store has a no packaging rule unless it is absolutely necessary. When Ethikli needs to package an item, they use recycled newspapers. Their shipping labels and tape are 100% biodegradable.
